

Senshu University Kumamoto Tamana High School

About Us

General information

Senshu University Kumamoto Tamana high school is located in Tamana city, Kumamoto prefecture.

Tamana is a 152.60km² city with a population of approximately 67,000 people.

Tamana city is set in front of a picturesque backdrop of mountains, facing the Ariake Sea, with the Kikuchi River flowing alongside it, and it is a beautiful site throughout the year, as the changing seasons bring out the best in this natural environment. And also This place is celebrated for its hot springs, “Tamana Onsen.”

Our school was established in 1949 and had the fiftieth anniversary of its foundation in 2017. Our students are involved in community programs, such as volunteering and maintaining the area and helping with local traditional festivals. All students can enjoy their school lives and work hard with each other. Students can enhance their sociability and a rich sense of humanity through school life and club activities with various age groups.
